From the Vicar.....

Dear Friends,

The snowdrops are emerging from their dormant sleep and daylight hours are beginning to increase. One of my children is particularly interested in weather patterns and we've been looking at weather charts to see that the sunrise and sunset hours change a tiny amount every day. We've noticed too that our chickens are awakening increasingly earlier and letting us know they're ready for their breakfast.

In the church calendar February brings us to Candlemas, the festival that marks the presentation of the 40 day old baby Jesus in the Temple thereby fulfilling elderly figures who have been waiting faithfully for years, finally see what they had long hoped for: the light of God coming into the world. Simeon describes Jesus as 'a light for revelation to the Gentiles, for glory to your people Israel'.

Light is such a powerful symbol at this time of year, when we who are weary of darkness, dark mornings, dark evenings and sometimes dark news that weighs heavily on our hearts.

Yet Candlemas reminds us that God's light does not wait for perfect conditions. It shines into ordinary, imperfect, even difficult circumstances. Hope doesn't arrive with a fanfare, it often comes quietly, held gently in waiting arms.

At the conclusion of our Candlemas service we have a candlelit procession in church to remind us that Christ is the light of the world and that we are called to share that light. Our final response is to say together: 'Help us, who now go in peace, to shine with your light in the world, thanks be to God, Amen.'

During this month we're invited to pause and reflect. Before we step into the busyness of Spring and before Lent calls us to reflect once again on Jesus' journey to the Cross...there's time to ask simple but important questions:

Where have I noticed light recently?

Who has helped me to see hope when I struggled to find it myself?

And how might I be a small bearer of that light to others?

Yours in faith,
Vicar Becky

There is a lot of talk about 'mindfulness' these days, and how to find calm moments in our daily lives. Both the BBC and Classic FM have even got radio stations devoted to 'mindful' and 'calm' music. But as Christians, we have an extra, divine resource to call on..

Peaceful mind

The Bible tells the story of Jesus and His stressed disciples in a boat in a storm. Like them, we also get hit by storms in life. And like them, we can know that Jesus is also with us. Why not take a moment to ponder these promises:

Cast your cares on the Lord and He will sustain you; He will never let the righteous be shaken. (Psalm 55:22)

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid. (John 14:27)

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. (Philippians 4: 6-8)

Why not take a moment to memorise one of these verses?

Tuesday Group

Welcome back all members of Tuesday Group! This is to remind you that on 10th February we shall be having our AGM. This will be in the church hall so please arrive promptly so that we can start at 1.30pm.

I am sure you will remember that we no longer have a Leader as Hilary resigned last year. We have limped along through the year with me trying to do two jobs with the help of Jean and Carole. I am not happy for this to continue, so please have a good think about the positions and come forward to act as either Leader or Secretary.

Looking forward to seeing you on 10th February.

Diana

The Big Bash!

JESUS OFTEN TOLD STORIES WITH HIDDEN MEANINGS

ONE STORY WAS ABOUT A RICH MAN WHO DECIDED TO HAVE A PARTY

HE SENT OUT LOTS OF INVITATIONS

OH!
NO!!

BUT PEOPLE STARTED MAKING EXCUSES

ONE MAN SAID HE HAD BOUGHT A FIELD, BUT NEEDED TO MEASURE IT

ANOTHER MAN SAID HE NEEDED TO TEST DRIVE THE OXEN HE HAS JUST PAID FOR ANOTHER MAN SAID HE HAD JUST GOT MARRIED - AND HIS WIFE WOULDN'T LET HIM OUT!

SO THE RICH MAN INVITED ALL THE POOR AND NEEDY INSTEAD.

YES - I CAN COME TO YOUR PARTY

THE PARABLE MEANS WE SHOULDN'T MAKE EXCUSES FOR NOT FOLLOWING JESUS.

Read the story in
Luke 4:1-13

THE TEMPTATION OF JESUS

After Jesus was baptised in the River Jordan where did the Holy Spirit lead him to? v1

How many days was Jesus being tempted by the devil? v2

What did Jesus eat? v2

What did the devil tempt Jesus to turn a stone into? What did Jesus say? v3-4

What did the devil offer Jesus if He worshipped him? What did Jesus say? v7-8

What did the devil ask Jesus to do? What did Jesus say? v9

FIRST TEMPTATION THE DEVIL SAID:

"If you are God's Son order this stone to turn into bread."

JESUS REPLIED:

"Man shall not live on bread alone."

Read Deuteronomy 8:3

WE LEARN:

Read the Bible
Learn God's word.

SECOND TEMPTATION THE DEVIL SAID:

"I will give you power and wealth if you worship me."

JESUS REPLIED:

"Worship the Lord your God and serve only Him."

Read Deuteronomy 6:13

WE LEARN:

Put God first
Worship only Him.

THIRD TEMPTATION THE DEVIL SAID:

"If you are God's Son throw yourself down, the scriptures say God will take care of you."

JESUS REPLIED:

"Do not put the Lord your God to the test."

Read Deuteronomy 6:16

WE LEARN:

God cares, trust
Him do not test Him.

Experience Easter 2026

Could you help with this year's Experience Easter workshops for primary school-age children? We need at least 6 volunteers per session to help tell the story of Holy Week and Easter. Story-telling areas are set up around the church building and small groups of children, usually 6 at a time move around the story-telling areas and learn about what happened during Holy Week.

Children invited to join in with the story by participating in an activity and reflecting on part of the story. You will be provided with a story script and the activity information. Teachers and teaching assistants will be on hand too.

Please let Rev Becky know if you can help – dates will be announced in the pew sheet.

I also need help with setting up beforehand – if anyone is feeling particularly creative?

Many thanks

The Gift

Saved by grace lest any should boast
Such is His gift obtained at great cost,
God's Son was given to set men free,
Redemption made ours as He hung on the tree.

In wonder the angels saw Him go
From the glories of heaven to our world below,
This earth once fair now corrupt from the fall,
Fellowship broken and lost to all.

Bought back with a price that we could not pay
The taint of our sin by His blood washed away,
Reconciled to the Father, all this we have gained
Salvation His gift if we call on His Name.

Reflecting Faith: 'Breaking the Word'

For the last few months, we've been looking at the way that church services are put together. Recently we looked at the reading of the gospel, and how we honour that in our own body language (by standing up).

This month we will move on to 'The Sermon' which is often known as 'Breaking the Word'. This parallels if you like, the 'Breaking of the Bread' which follows later in the service.

The Sermon is intended to be an expansion and perhaps an explanation of the Bible readings that have been used in the service. Often it sets the scene and context for the verses which are set at what often seems quite random and disconnected.

This is particularly true of the Old Testament reading, where not only the verses may be unconnected to readings from previous services, but often they are taken from totally different books; Isaiah one week and Jeremiah another.

So what is the preacher's task here? It was once described to me as: to comfort the disturbed and to disturb the comfortable! That sounds a bit harsh, but when you think about it, isn't that what we really need from our God? When we are in difficulties, whatever the cause, we need to know He's there, and that He has our back, so to speak.

When things are going well for us, then that's a good time to be working on recognising another weakness in ourselves and working towards lessening it.

There's no sitting back on our laurels when we work for the Lord.

This month

As we start Lent this month, have a good listen to a few sermons. You can catch them in a church service or even on your computer. Most cathedrals have a website where they record their Sunday service in whole or in part, which you can listen to and take part wherever you are.

How were you before the sermon started and how did you feel at the end – was there something in it that you will think about over the coming week, or was it lovely comfort food? Whichever it was, may it bless you as you prepare for Lent.

Pray

(Mt 6:5,9)

When you pray...

Words and wisdom of Jesus –
He doesn't say, if or in case,
He says, when... you pray.

And we will.

From deep within,
Our spirit calls out to God,
Created to communicate with the Creator.

Cinemas can ban,
Statistics can suggest we won't,
But Jesus says, when you pray...
Say, Our Father,
And when we do, He hears and answers
And pours out His love,
Always.
